

Course outcome: UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES AND PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

1. To develop a critical ability to distinguish between essence and form; or between what is of value and what is superficial in life (to appreciate the importance of fundamental issues related to their happiness and real success in the life & profession).

What makes it interesting & challenging is the fact that the ability is to be developed not for a narrow area or field of study, but for everyday situations in life. It covers the widest possible canvas.

2. To move from discrimination to commitment (to develop sensitivity and awareness leading to commitment and courage to act on the basis of their own understanding, rather than merely on the basis of assumptions)

It is not sufficient to develop the discrimination ability, it is important to act on such discrimination in a given situation on their own right.

3. This module does not teach values.

It encourages students to discover what they consider valuable. Accordingly, they should be able to discriminate between valuable and the superficial in real situations in their life.
